Aging & Disability Resource Center adds health and wellness coordinator

APPLETON (Nov. 16, 2007) — Nancy Krueger has joined the Aging & Disability Resource Center (ADRC) serving Calumet, Outagamie and Waupaca counties as the health and wellness coordinator.

In her new role, Krueger will work with partners in both the private and public sectors to develop and offer prevention programs to reduce the need for long-term care services throughout Calumet, Outagamie and Winnebago counties.

Krueger has a master's degree in social work from the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay and is a certified information and referral specialist. She has a background in social work in both hospital and county settings, and has experience working with the elderly, people with chronic diseases and people with mental health issues.

Krueger has a strong interest in preventing strategies that are evidence-based and proven to help people live healthier lives.

The ADRC opened in July 2006 and is designed to be a no-cost, single point of contact for senior citizens and individuals with disabilities in Calumet, Outagamie and Waupaca counties looking for assistance. For more information, please call toll free at 866-739-2372 or visit www.yourADRCresource.org.
