ADRC adds disability benefit specialist

APPLETON (Feb. 28, 2008) – Jennifer Schimmelpfenning has joined the Aging & Disability Resource Center (ADRC) branches in Calumet, Outagamie and Waupaca counties, as a disability benefit specialist.

Schimmelpfenning has a bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh in human services. She previously worked in group home settings, as the work force assistant for the Wisconsin Works program in Outagamie County and as the Food Share employment and training case manager for Outagamie County.

As a disability benefit specialist, Schimmelpfenning will work one-on-one with consumers on their applicants for Social Security disability and advocating for them with medical assistance and Medicare.

The ADRC opened in July 2006 and is designed to be a no-cost, single point of contact for senior citizens and individuals with disabilities in Calumet, Outagamie and Waupaca counties looking for assistance.

For more information on the disability benefit specialist program and other services offered by the ADRC, please visit www.yourADRCresource.org.
