Attend a Presentation

4:00 pm - “Resident Rights in Long-Term Facilities”, Casey Beilke, Regional Ombudsman with the State of Wisconsin Board on Aging and Long-Term Care Office of the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman will be presenting on resident rights in long-term care facilities.

6:00 pm - “Mom’s Gone Missing”, Susan A. Marshall is an author, professional speaker and leadership facilitator who has spent the past 25 years working independently. She is the author of four books and hundreds of articles on a variety of topics. In March 2021, she launched Compassion Chats to bring Alzheimer’s and dementia care providers to the caregiver community, hoping to dispel the loneliness and helplessness so many of us feel.

This event is free. All Caregivers and family members welcome! Light appetizers will be available. Registration is recommended but not required. Three copies of Susan’s book, “Mom’s Gone Missing” will be randomly awarded to three people who pre-register for the event and two books will be given away as door prizes. Susan will sign books, books can be purchased – cost $15.

Respite care is available if needed, but must be requested by September 14, 2022. To register call the ADRC at (920) 849-1451, for respite information contact 920-225-1711 or email info@foxvalleymemoryproject.org
